1955			Cox	Cox 049, Fox 0.09				Model airplane engines, larger one would break your fingers starting it if you weren't careful. My first combustion engines.  autoloadr
1957	Stolen 1958 in Anna Maria, FL		Neptune	Mighty Mite 1.9 hp	Silver, lots of patina	From Dad	Stolen along with the 12' silver painted plywood bot my dad and I made together.	Mine was just like this. Many hours on Snapper Creek and all the way back into the Evergaldes through the canal drainage system !4 years old and camping in the "Glades snake hunting and noting but fun weekends despite mosquitoes.  eBay
1957	1958	1957	Johnson	25 hp outboard/15' Fiberglass boat				Mom bought to keep me off motorcycles, Pounded the bottom out of the boat in the bay @ Anna Maria, Florida.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Mine was like this one. Really struggled to keep it running. Had to change plugs every time I used it. Pull start sometimes took 30-45 min to get started and all my energy to get it going but I was determined.

1958	1958	1950s ????	Whizzer	Motorized bicycle	Black

The boat couldn't keep me off the streets. My 1st motorized conveyance, rode from South Miami to Hialeah every day to work in the summer at Thunderbird boats, pedaled forever to start. Freedom for a 15 year old!!!

1958	1958	1954	Allstate	Sit-down scooter	Red

Like mine was. As seen in Barber Museum.

1958	1958	1948	Cushman	2 speed sit-down scooter	Green			Pretty fast, paper route, weird looking though  Just like mine, image from internet, weird suspension, huh?
1959	1959	1956	Cushman	Eagle 2 speed, straddle scooter	Black			I modified this like crazy! Homestead to Fort Lauderdale and everywhere in between. 15 years old  As mine was back in the day.
1959	1959	19??	Lambretta	2 cycle scooter	??	$5.00		Imagine Yourself in the Driver's Seat Just step on, start the starter and off you go!  Like mine. Didn't last long. Bought from a kid who probably stole it.
5/1959	11/1959	1954	Willis	Aero Sedan	Red			 Aero Willys—the Measure of Tomorrow's Motor Car Standard. This one is like my 1st car, Dad helped me buy, burned a rod bearing, over-revving and probably didn't check oil enough. Dad was understanding though and had it reground. Mine was like this one but not nearly as nice. I used a belt to keep the door closed after I almost fell out going around right hand corners a few times and the door would fly open.
11/1959	3/1960	1947	Chevy	Deluxe something		$50	$35	Cheap, good service. Lots of fun. Eventually valve gear rocker shaft wore out. Sold for scrap

2/1960	/21960	1938	Chevy	Coupe		$5.00	$20.00 for scrap	Bought for to use valve train and 3 speed floor shift on '47, cut up for scrap after parts used
3/1960	8/1961	1955	Chevy	4 door 210 sedan	Red/white			Traded even for '34 Chevy Started as 6 cylinder 3 speed, Dad's car. I blew this engine too (still hard on equipment.) Put in fuel injected 327 Chevy, 4 speed, 411 rear &gt; 13.01 in 1/4 mile, traded for '34 Chevy coupe in Biloxi, MS  That's me in the lowered 2 tone at drag strip in Tallahassee, FL 1961. Lowered by heating the springs until it was all the way down. Rough riding but cool looking.
8/61	3/62	1934	Chevy	3 window coupe	Purple	Traded '55 Chevy even up	$700??	 Channeled, 283 4v carb, no fenders, met wife, Beryle, in this one, took to it college at Univ. of Florida as a freshman, painted it purple, sold to get married, see next car.

3/1962	1966	1956	VW	Karmann Ghia, id# 6220	Black	$900	???	 Future father-in-law said '34 Chevy "not the kind of car for a married man." So I sold it and bought this car. Finished college at University of Miami in it. Ex-hurricane flood car. Everything rusted out. Repaired with screen, wire, pop-rivets tar &amp; plywood. Mostly reliable or if not easy to repair. That's Beryle and son, Scott, at 2½ the day we left for Memphis and med school
7/14/62	1963??	1955	Ford	Crown Victoria	Red & white		???	Came with wife. Repainted in driveway
